About Me

Adriane Lazo, professionally known as MC_LĀZ, is a Filipino singer-songwriter, music producer, and performer recognized for his emotionally resonant sound and modern R&B-pop fusion. Combining lyrical depth with refined production, his music explores themes of love, self-awareness, and human connection through atmospheric sound design and heartfelt storytelling.

With a strong foundation in music production, programming, and performance, Adriane demonstrates both artistic versatility and technical mastery. He plays guitar and piano, integrating live instrumentation with digital elements to create immersive sonic experiences.

Driven by vision and authenticity, MC_LĀZ continues to craft music that bridges emotion and innovation — positioning himself as an emerging voice in the contemporary music landscape, defined by sincerity, creativity, and purpose.
